ARTICLE 4 - OBLIGATIONS OF COMPETITORS

Before sending an application file, competitors must obtain authorisation to reproduce and represent the items in their file (e.g. models, drawings, photos, videos, patents, trademarks, copyrights, in particular from any providers who may have been involved in production etc.) in all media that might in any way cover the Prix Formes de Luxe for promotional or information purposes, and for reproduction by the Organiser in promotional documents in numbers appearing after the competition. The Organiser must not be subject to any obligation whatsoever for such use. Competitors must hold the Organiser harmless against all third party claims in this respect.

ARTICLE 5 – ENTRY

The entry form and application file can be downloaded from <http://prix.formesdeluxe.com/>

Please send all items to ETAI by September 25th, 2020 as specified below. Samples should be sent to the address given at 3.2 c) above.

ARTICLE 6 - JURY - SELECTION PROCESS

The members of the jury are selected by the Organiser from among well-known names in the luxury packaging industry. They are selected for their professional and technical skill and in the light of the assessment criteria for each category.

The jury can move any product from the category in which it was originally entered if it believes that its file is better suited to a different category.

Depending on the number and quality of entries received, the Jury reserves the right to delete or merge categories, or to create new prizes.

The jury may reorganise the categories on the basis of the number of entries.

Jury members may not participate in the voting for a prize for which their company or brand is a candidate, associated brand or directly or indirectly involved.

Jury discussions are secret and its decisions are final and cannot be appealed.

The jury will discuss all submitted files. The jury will select a winner in each category by secret vote. The jury may select joint winners or decide not to award any prize. The president of the jury has the casting vote in the event of a tie.

The following criteria will be considered. However, this list is not exhaustive and the weight of each item is not specified:

- Innovation
- Technical manufacturing challenges
- Translation of brand DNA
- Quality of production/esthetic content
- Eco-design

Winners will be informed by telephone so that they can attend the ceremony but must not disclose the information to any third party whatsoever.

ARTICLE 7 – USE OF THE FORMES DE LUXE 2020 NAME

Subject to the terms and conditions set by the Organiser, Prize-winners alone may use the Prix Formes de Luxe 2020 name and logo on official, sales and promotional documents concerning the company and/or the winning item(s). Authorisation for such use is given for one (1) year only from the awards ceremony.

ARTICLE 8 - PERSONAL DATA

The personal data collected above by the Organiser will be electronically processed for competition purposes. We need the data to process competition entries and it will be recorded in the Organiser's file. The Organiser and all companies in the Infopro Digital group may send competitors business proposals to take part in professional events, or for products and/or services relevant to their businesses as well as include them in business directories.

Depending on the information in the application file, competitors' personal data may be sent to the Organiser's partners, which may offer similar products or services as part of their business. Competitors have the right to access, correct and object to the use of their data and may exercise these rights by writing to: ETAI, « Prix Formes de Luxe », Antony Parc 2 - 10, place du Général de Gaulle - 92 160 Antony - France, or emailing cnil.evenements@infopro-digital.com. The Infopro Digital group's Personal Data Charter is available at: <https://www.infopro-digital.com/rgpd-gdpr/>

ARTICLE 9 - OTHER PROVISIONS

10.1 - Application files that contain errors, are incomplete, have not been sent by the deadline or have not been electronically validated by the competitor will be null and void and will not be entered in the competition.

10.2 - The Organiser reserves the right, particularly in the event of force majeure, to shorten, extend, suspend, alter or cancel the competition.

10.3 - Competitors, nominees and winners hereby authorise the Organiser, in advance and without financial consideration, to use their names, logos, images and the surnames and first names of their representatives and the details contained in their winning files for promotional, publicity and information purposes (especially during Organiser events and in print and/or web publications) without obligation whatsoever on the part of the Organiser. They must hold the Organiser harmless against all claims in this respect.

10.4 - The Organiser accepts no liability for problems with the postal service (late delivery or loss) or for the total or partial destruction of application files caused by other chance events. The Organiser accepts no liability for partial or total internet malfunction over which it has no control if this prevents the electronic validation of applications.

10.5 - Application files will not be returned.

10.6 – These regulations are subject to French law. The Organiser alone will decide on all problems concerning the interpretation and/or application of these regulations.
